BIGGEST OF FLOATING DOCKS.

IT WILL BE ABLE TO HANDLE A 20,000 TON BATTLESHIP.

The structure now being completed at Sparrows Point—Built for Use in the Philippines—A 14,000 Mile Towing Job to Be Done—Statistical Description.

BALTIMORE, Md., April 1.—The largest floating steel dry dock in the world, which is being constructed at the dock department of the Maryland Steel Company, at Sparrows Point, is now 90 per cent. complete. It is expected that it will be floated in May.

The dock is for the United States Government and has been planned to raise the largest vessel in the United States navy. The contract requires that it shall lift a 16,000 ton battleship, but this capacity will be exceeded, and its maximum lifting power will be 20,000 tons.

The floating dock contains 11,000 tons of steel and has 2,000,000 rivets. It will require 130 tons of red lead and lined oil to paint it. Its cost is $124,000. It is 500 feet long over all, 100 feet wide between fenders, 134 feet over all and 42 feet high on the side walls clear of the pontoons.

The side walls are 64 feet high from the bottom. The thickness of the side walls is 14 feet. The pontoons are 18½ feet deep.
When floating light draught it will draw 6½ feet of water. When submerged it will require 62 feet of water to give a draught of 30 feet above the blocks.

The next largest dock in the world is that at New Orleans. It has a lifting capacity of 17,500 tons.

The Bermuda dock, built in England, is 545 feet long, 100 feet wide and has a lifting capacity of 18,500 tons. The Pola dock, owned by the Austrian Government, has a lifting capacity of 15,000 tons.

The Stettin dock, owned by Germany, is 510 feet long and has a lifting capacity of 11,000 tons. The Pensacola dock of the United States Government, formerly the Havana dock, is 450 feet long and has a lifting capacity of 10,000 tons.

The first floating dock ever constructed was built in England. When it was completed, in 1869, it was towed to Bermuda by two men-of-war, the Agincourt and the Terrible. It was semi-circular in shape and had the appearance of a huge rocker.

The modern docks are square in shape and consist of bottom or pontoons and two side walls. The dock now being constructed at Sparrows Point has the appearance of a huge box with two ends and top missing.

Provision has been made on the dock for quartering nine officers and twelve men. It is fitted with electric light service and distilling apparatus for securing fresh water for drinking and cooking purposes. It will also be fitted with a complete machine shop, equipped to handle all ordinary repairs to vessels taken into the dock.

When the dock is afloat it will be towed to Solomon's Island, in the Patuxent River, and anchored there until it is tested by lifting the heaviest vessel in the United States Navy. After the test has been completed it will be towed to the Philippines, a distance of 14,000 miles, where it will be formally delivered.

This will be a difficult marine task.
The towing is to be done by vessels of the United States Navy, accompanied by a fleet of colliers.

MONTANA POKER HANDS.

$200 Lost in Two Minutes—$2,500 Won by Queens Against a Fat Hand.

HELENA, Mon., April 1.—"It was perhaps the most remarkable game of poker played in Helena in recent years," said a well known physician addressing a group of friends in one of the hotel lobbies. "No, I was not a participant, but I learned the details, and of their veracity there can be no doubt."

"The game occurred during the last week of the Legislature, and was participated in by residents of Helena and Butte, and a remarkable feature of the game was that every resident of Helena quit a winner, while every Butte man booked a losing when the game ended."

"While the aggregate winnings amounted to less than $5,000, yet there were two or three unusual incidents even for a poker game, and these involved high stakes."

"One Butte man sat in the game, buying $200 worth of checks. The man to his right, who was also a resident of Butte, opened a jackpot for $50. The newcomer, who had three aces, played back, and to the extent of $50."

"The opener, who held a pat hand, stood the raise, and again raised the newcomer for the amount of his stakes, or $100. The newcomer did not better his hand in the draw, and lost his $200 within two minutes after he had sat in the game."

"The most remarkable stake of the game was when this same newcomer opened a jackpot with three queens, and several others staking it came to the dealer, who found that he had an ace full."

"He quite naturally played back, and the three queen opener simply trailed to see what the others would do, and to his delight all stood the raise. Noticing that the dealer had exposed his own hand to the extent of announcing that he would stand pat, the opener drew right down to his queens and caught the fourth one."

"He passed the bet and allowed the trailers to start the ball rolling, so that when it came to the dealer the pot contained nearly $2,000. The dealer bet $500, while the four queen opener played back for $500 more, but did not get a caller, raking down about $2,500 in one pot."

"The Helena men won $2,400, $2,200, $525 and $300, the losses being nearly equally divided between the Butte men, with the exception of Syde Sam, who lost nearly $1,000."

The Millinery Sale of the Season.

To-morrow, just three weeks from Easter, will be celebrated here with a most unusual offering of untrimmed Hats and millinery Flowers. The prices will in many instances be actually less than the cost of raw material.

Untrimmed Hats.

Less Than Cost of Material.

The most desirable shapes and styles that have sold in tremendous quantities at regular prices—adaptations from Parisian models and most becoming and artistic effects from leading American designers.

95c. to $1.25 Fancy Braid Hats, 59c.
Some are of the popular lace effect and that has been one of the great favorites this season; others are of a fine Italian braid that is closely plaited, and also another great favorite. They are made in the shapes that are most in demand, 3 styles of turbans, 2 styles of Sailors, 3 designs in the Continental and 2 styles in the large Hat effects; colors are black, brown, navy, blue, red, green or green and cardinal; counted especial value everywhere at 95c. to $1.25; here at 59c. None sent C. O. D.

$1.50 to $2.50 Black Imitation Horsehair and Chip Hats, 95c.
Some are of an imitation horsehair in a rich, lustrous black, and designed so as to require a simple trimming to complete them, in the turban and turban designs; others are of an extra fine grade chip braid; each Hat finished with eight rows of the finest grade natural turban braid; a very dressy and pretty effect; shapes are sailor and large Hat effects; may be richly trimmed with ostrich plumes or flowers; great value at $1.50 to $2.50; here at 95c. to $1.25.

$3.25 Black Ribbon Hats, $2.29.
Some stores are selling these Hats at $3.25; we know of no stock of them at this price. Made of an imported narrow ribbon, closely crimped with folds of fine chiffon; small and large Hat effects, considered good value at $3.25; here at $2.29. None sent C. O. D.

To make the occasion more interesting and facilitate deliveries we will give to each customer who takes her purchase with her, a beautiful and absolutely unique, as well as appropriate Easter Gift. We have secured many thousand dainty Flowers, picked in Palestine, which have been moulded in a neat and pretty way as an Easter pamphlet. They will be particularly interesting to the botanist, certainly appreciated by the Sunday school pupil.
The Flowers are beautiful, including the "Lily of the Field" (Anemone Coronaria), "Madonna Flower" (Arctia Ignemata), "Cyclama" (Cyclama Aleppicum), "Palestine Daisy" (Palestina Scabiosa) and "Pheasant's Eye" (Adonis Palestina). Nothing to compare with them in appropriateness has ever been given by any store anywhere. One to each customer who
